If you're looking to organize the perfect party, whether it's in the heat of the summer, the cool of the fall or indoors in winter, contact the CRE and make your vision a reality. We've successfully hosted festivals, weddings and company gatherings for decades, and supplied event rentals and equipment for organizations who have hosted events on their site. We have the experience, the know-how and most importantly the picnic tables, kegerators, tablecloths, drapes, table runners, and chair covers to help put the perfect finishing touches on your next banquet, wedding or company picnic.

If you're looking for the perfect place to host a large gathering, look no further than the CRE. We have the facilities, and rentals to help you organize an event your guests will be talking about for years to come. Contact us today about having us host your event, or renting the right party gear for your site. Either way, the CRE is here to help make your outdoor summer party or indoor event perfect in every way.
